WE4F Asia EDGE Ag-Energy Prize

The Water and Energy for Food (WE4F) Grand Challenge Asia Enhancing Development and Growth through Energy (EDGE) Ag-Energy Prize seeks business owners and entrepreneurs in Southeast Asia with game-changing innovations operating at the nexus of sustainable, renewable energy, and agriculture.

OVERVIEW

The prize competition will spur, recognize, and reward outstanding enterprises from both youth innovators and mid-stage businesses in the Southeast Asian footprint. The prize competition aims to:

1. Identify and fund promising innovators at the nexus of renewable energy and agriculture;
2. Explore market activity about the nature, progress, and scale of small and growing enterprises in the region; and
3. Improve awareness of WE4F and Asia EDGE development initiatives among the business community.

The Prize is open to mid-market businesses and youth innovators. Applicants will be judged on their understanding of the problems within the sector, the potential social impact of their innovation, the viability of their business model, and their ability to target markets at the base of the pyramid.

WHO WE ARE

The Water and Energy for Food (“WE4F”) Challenge Fund is a partnership among the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID), Sweden through the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency (Sida), and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Asia EDGE is a whole-of government initiative to grow sustainable and secure energy markets throughout the Indo-Pacific region. Under Asia EDGE, USAID plays a leading role helping its Indo-Pacific partners expand energy access, promote energy diversification and trade, and strengthen energy security across the region.

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

The WE4F Asia EDGE Ag-Energy Prize is open to both public and private sector partners that share our vision to recognize outstanding business and enterprises in energy for food in Southeast Asia.

There are many ways to get engaged with the prize:

- Blast the prize call to your network
- Increase our cash prize purse
- Provide mentorship to finalists
- Serve as a judge or thoughtleader
- Host a side event
